

Attention all young artists...

COLOURED pencils, textas, crayons at the ready – it's time for The AJN's annual Rosh Hashanah card competition.

Open to children aged between five and 12, the winning entry will become the official AJN New Year card for 5777 sent to a whole host of VIPs both locally and abroad, including the Prime Minister of Australia and the President of Israel.

"Every year, we are overwhelmed by both the quantity and quality of the entries we receive and we're sure this year will be no different," said AJN national editor Zeddy Lawrence.

Entries should be submitted on an A4 sheet of paper, along with the entrant's name, age, school, and contact details written on the back, to Rosh Hashanah card competition, PO Box 1000, Caulfield South, Vic 3162. The closing date for entries is Friday, September 9.
