Sun Poem

Sun, sun is my name shining through another way. All my friends up in the sky love to hear my stories. Shining up above you is what I do all day.
When night comes I go away.
I'll come again another day.
Like tomorrow!

A smile is a gift that you can give and receive but never return or concern and always earn.

Shape Poem

Be happy be a friend help your partner do your best never give up be the brave one help the world,
Oh Yes!

Spring Poem

Spring has arrived
To bring colour to the year
The bees come out of their hive
And the pollen brings a tear
The bees are buzzing about The flowers start to grow
The people can go out
The grass will need a mow Spring has brought Father's Day
And Rosh Hashanah too
Spring is the season to play
The sky is shining blue
