LAST Wednesday proved a momentous one for Bialik College's senior sports in the Eastern Independent Schools of Melbourne (EISM) summer grand finals.

Four teams competed in EISM deciders, with three triumphant and the other sharing in the spoils.

The boys' volleyball competition saw Bialik's central division team take home the top prize after defeating Oxley 2-0, while the southern division side spiked Nunawading to win with the same score line.

Bialik's boys' tennis team walloped Eltham 9-0 in a stunning sweep, as the girls' soccer team couldn't split the premiership with Oxley after playing out a thrilling 3-3 draw.

In other recent news, Bialik has maintained its EISM Swimming Championships Division 1 status for the second consecutive year.

Brooke Roseman claimed victories in the Under-14 50 metre freestyle and 50 metre backstroke, recording winning times of 29.37 and 33.56 seconds, respectively.

Adam Ossip finished third in both

Under-15 freestyle and backstroke, while Tommy Eylon swam a stellar race to claim second place in the girls Under-13 50m backstroke event.

The Under-15 boys relay team boasting Ossip, Yotam Kimchi, Ward Williams and Brendan Cohen put in an incredible performance to claim a silver medal with a time of two minutes, three seconds.
