

Jewish Holocaust Centre film club

The Jewish Holocaust Centre film club recently held a special screening of the documentary film Carl Lutz – The Forgotten Hero. The film recounts the incredible life of Carl Lutz, a Swiss diplomat in Budapest, who saved tens of thousands of persecuted Hungarian Jews from death during World War II. The screening was followed by a Q&A session chaired by Brendan Cohen, head of media at Bialik College.