

Brilliance at Mount Buller

Mount Buller ski resort was abuzz on July 29 and 30 with more than 160 of the best young Jewish skiers and snowboarders from Victoria and NSW zooming down its Skyline Run for the 2019 Maccabi Snow Sports and Australian Jewish Inter-School Championships. Highlights included Bialik College's Lili Cooper (pictured in action) becoming the senior girls' winner and girls' division 1 champion, and Jasper Rogers (pictured in centre of the podium) claiming the junior boys' and boys' division 5 titles. Mount Scopus were the overall champions.
